THE CORN AND WHEAT MAR
figures yesterday, October and November were kept close to the highest prices yet paid. The receipts of corn are now beginning to arrive in a great volume. But very few venture to assert that the present prices will not be sustained to the close of the present month at least. The latest figures of the day were: 73 cents bid, 78 cents asked, September; 58; cents, October; 47; cents, November; 40; cents, year; and 39; cents, November; 40; cents, year; and 39; cents, way. The figures of the board of trade statician show an increase of 1,850,000 bushels of wheat during the past week; but this did not exceed a pectations, and the market ruled steady and strong during nearly all of the session, closing fully 1; cents over yesterday.

THE CORN AND WHEAT MARmitted suicide. After her death rumors were circulated to the effect that the cruelty were circulated to the effect that the cruelty of her husband was the cause of her taking her life, and Johnston to exculpate himself gave to the public a number of letters written by Mrs. Johnston to her husband, in which she admitted that improper relations had existed between herself and Henry. These letters were written in a style at once graphic and powerful. Their publication attracted wide attention. Johnston is a well known lawyer and political speaker, but for some time has held a position in the pension service. Government duties required his presence in Tennessee, and he threatened after the death of his wife that he would kill Henry. line shown by the market is the gradual de-cline shown in the receipts at primary re-ceiving points. The closing figures were: 77 cents, October: 83½ cents, November: 80½ and ½ cents, December. Oats declined ½ and ½ cents, closing at 25½ for September, 25½ cents for October, and 26½ cents for Novem-ber, and pork ruled quiet, closing at $16.95 for October, and $11.95 for year. Lard was firm at $7.40 for October, and $7.20 and $7.22½ for November.
